Make any Crepe Buckwheat for $2 more

While our regular crepes are made with all-purpose flour, traditionally, savory crepes are made from buckwheat flour and are called "galletes." Buckwheat is a relative of rhubarb and contains no wheat. The complex, hearty flavor is a slowly digested carbohydrate that's filled with fiber and has an earthy taste.

Since no item has been tested by a certified laboratory, legally we cannot say any item is 100% gluten-free. Gluten allergies (celiac disease) are a serious thing. Based on our research, buckwheat flour, hence our buckwheat batter, is gluten-free. We do not, however, have a dedicated crepe machine where we only prepare the buckwheat crepes, but we do use separate utensils where we can. Most people with sensitivities don't have issues eating our buckwheat crepes, but it is entirely dependent on a person's sensitivity.

Consuming raw or undercooked meats, poultry, seafood, shellfish, or eggs may increase your risk of foodborne illness.
